STATUTE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TARTU BADGE OF DISTINCTION

1. The Badge of Distinction of the University of Tartu may be awarded to employees of the university for outstanding job achievements and to individuals outside the university who have rendered valuable service to the university. [effective as of 4 December 2007]

2. The Badge of Distinction is a specially designed badge to be worn on the chest.

3. Recipients of the badge are proposed by heads of units subject to endorsement by the dean, director of the institution, Vice Rector or Area Director. Proposals made by institutions must be endorsed by the supervising Vice Rector or Area Director.

4. Recipients of the Badge of Distinction of the University of Tartu shall be determined by the Rector.

5. The award of a Badge of Distinction must be formalised by a directive of the Rector.

6. The badges are presented to recipients by the Rector or by a Vice Rector, Area Director or Dean subject to one-time verbal authorisation from the Rector. [effective as of 6 April 2009]

7. The names of recipients of the Badge of Distinction are inscribed in the corresponding honour roll, which is kept by the Academic Secretary.
